Financial Consequences

To take advantage of this fantastic opportunity to work in Europe, you need to make some crucial investments in yourself. The total costs can amount up to GHS 150,000.

For applicants who do not have money available, we have been able to make agreements with a few banks that are very acceptable.

As soon as we have received the properly completed contact form, we will send you a specification of options and costs and arrange an introduction to the bank.